El Naranjo COE – Colombia

The producer’s name of the farm El Naranjo is Gonzalo Dagua Conda. He is a native of the town La Estrella, located in the municipality of Caloto, northern Cauca. He was born in 1962, married to Ernestina Ramos, with whom they have 5 children. They are a very close family, making decisions all together regarding the coffee and the farm. They help each other in the coffee farm and have a tradition in coffee growing. The tradition of coffee growers comes from his grandparents and his father.

This tradition relies on 5 fundamental principles, social and family organization, soil conservation, care and protection of water resources as well as care and protection of wildlife.

The farm El Naranjo obtained the 4th place at the Cup of Excellence Colombia South 2014.

Cup Profile

Farmer: Gonzalo Dagua Conda
Origin: Cauca, Caloto, Colombia
Altitude: 1750m
Variety: Colombia & Castillo
Processing: washed
Cup profile: mint, eucalyptus, very exotic, syrupy body, sparkling acidity, clarity in the finish